

VERDEJO

TAPEÑA: Tapeña is an innovative brand that offers expressive, fruit-forward, indigenous wines from the heart of Spain. The name Tapeña fuses two of the liveliest Spanish concepts: tapas, flavorful foods made to share, and peña, a close group of friends. Inspired by the energy of the lively tapas bars throughout Spain, these food-friendly wines from Spain's most successful winemaking family, the Ferrers, have a rich, sleek style that is approachable, lively and just a bit adventurous.

REGION: Tapeña is crafted from grapes cultivated in Tierra de Castilla in the heart of Spain. Outside the highly regulated Denominacion de Origen (DO) system, these wines benefit from multiple micro-climates of the region that are well suited to the cultivation of classic Spanish grape varieties. With over 600,000 hectares, this large region provides diversity of soils, vinification and vineyard management that affords our winemaker the flexibility to create the very best wines from the best locations.

GRAPES: (100% Verdejo)

Verdejo is the Spanish answer to Sauvignon Blanc with a hint more floral aromas. Verdejo is known to come from several regions across Spain ranging from Rueda to Tierra de Castilla. This varietal has been written about by wine writers from Robert Parker to Hugh Johnson as the next hot white that is known for good value for the money.

VERDEJO: This pale yellow hued wine has a vibrant nose with an array of aromas of green apples and peach over a backdrop of tropical pineapple. The palate is full-flavored and complex with a fine apple fruit beautifully balanced by a refreshing and lingering acidity.

FOOD PAIRINGS: Tapeña Verdejo is a delightful white that pairs well with many different dishes. Try it with grilled salmon, lemon chicken, creamy lighter cheeses such as goat cheese or a fresh summer salad.
